

Sociological survey 2004

AYLU held a sociological inquiry among NGOs as a part of the project on Ombudsman law education -“What is an ombudsman?”. The project is funding by ABA CEELI/ USAID. The responds to the questions were been different. It turned out that the majority of the respondents hadn't idea about ombudsman institute in general.

We are paying to your attention the results of the survey. There were participated approximately 500 (312 male and 188 female) respondents (includes 120 NGO representatives).

1. Have you got information about Ombudsman (human rights commissioner – public prosecutor)?

- Yes - 8%
- I have no information - 92%

2. How is actual and topical the project implemented by AYLU?

- Very actual - 58%
- Not topical - 12%
- Find difficulty - 30%

3. Which themes might be interesting during the implementation of the project?

- Ombudsman activity abroad - 15%
- Ombudsman activity and Azerbaijan reality - 85%

4. In your opinion, will the project help to provide educational works among NGOs?

- Yes- 85%
- No - 5%
- Find difficulty – 10%

5. Which of the following methods are most suitable for legal enlightenment of NGOs on this sphere?

- seminars 27%
- trainings 20%
- via publishing of booklets 8%
- via books as a visual aids 9%
- brochures on comparative analyze of legislation on human rights 10%
- creation of web-site 4%

- electronically digest 3%
- social advertising on Radio 3%
- advertising through newspapers and TV 16%

6. Do you believe on the effectiveness of the web-site during the project implementation?

- Yes 56%
- No 42%
- Find difficulty 2%

7. Is it effective that the project will implement at the region as well?

Yes 75%

No 25%

Azerbaijan Young Lawyers' Union

"Lawyer" Survey Center.

tel/fax: (99412)988804